The Christian Evangelist.

We are authorized to state that Rev. W. G. Black, the phenomenal revivalist of the Christian church, who has been conducting very successful meetings at Watseka and Clinton, will visit Decatur to-morrow and hold one service at the Christian church. The meeting will commence at 2 o'clock, and all Decatur people are invited to attend. Rev. Black has an enviable reputation throughout the west as a successful worker, and the curious will have an opportunity to-morrow of observing his methods for themselves.

Crops in Kansas.

Mr. George Harrauff, formerly of Macon county, writes us from McPherson county, Kansas, under date of March 19th, as follows: "We have been having beautiful weather here the last few weeks; no rain, but good roads. There was a big rain here about the last of February that made the roads muddy for a short time; ground is in good order for work, and farmers are busy putting out spring wheat and oats. Fall wheat that was put out early, looks well, and the wheat fields are getting nice and green; but the fall wheat that was put out late froze out some, but it will make a good crop yet if it is seasonable from this on, although it needs rain to give it a good start. Wheat is worth about 80 cents, corn in the ear from 30 to 45 cents, seed corn (shelled) 75 cents a bushel, potatoes about $1.50 a bushel, apples $2.00 a bushel, eggs 10 cts. a dozen, chickens about $2.75 a dozen."

After Easter Ball.

About all the preparations for the after Easter ball to be given at Guard's Armory on Monday evening next, March 26th, by the Cigar-makers' Union, are about completed. The affair will be one of the social successes of the year. The members of the union cordially invite all who have received invitations to be present. Goodman's band has been engaged for the occasion. Get your tickets of the committee.

"The Aristocracy" at Jacksonville.

The Barry and Fay company appeared at Jacksonville Tuesday night, and the Journal of yesterday said:

A crowded house greeted the presentation of Irish Aristocracy at Muldoon's Pianos at the opera house on last night. From the time the first act was fairly under way the fun for the audience began, and from the continued laughter and applause the audience did not find the fun in spots, but all over, and there was a play. Hugh Fay and Billy Barry are simply irresistible as Mac and Muldoon. The play is free from broad or variety features, but is filled with amusing situations which follow each other in quick succession. There will not be standing room when Irish Aristocracy is presented here again.

This company will appear at the opera house in this city on Monday evening next. Admission, 25, 50 and 75 cents.

For Town Clerk.

John B. Williams is the first candidate to announce for the office of town clerk. Mr. Williams is an old resident of Decatur, and is thoroughly conversant with town affairs. He is at present temporary, engaged in the county clerk's office, in preparing the assessor's books, and has had much experience of that kind. He would make a good officer.

The Rev. Harrison revival was attended last evening by the usual large crowd of people, and the meeting was marked by a success in every respect, with marked signs of increasing interest. Many persons who have been thinking seriously made a start, and will be numbered among the converted in a short time. A Decatur dentist who has been among the seekers for several weeks, and had almost despaired of receiving the blessing, was converted last night, and there was general rejoicing about the altar. It was a good beginning for the first night's service of the seventeenth week of the meeting, there being about 15 conversions. Rev. Harrison is looking forward to a grand jubilee over 2,000 converted. The number now aggregates nearly 1800.

A New Machine.

Peter Kaufman, a farmer who lives near Kappa, has invented a new threshing machine, which is said to thresh grain twice as fast as the old machines, having by actual trial threshed 3,245 bushels of oats in one day. The machine threshes and weighs the grain, elevates it into a wagon, and keeps a correct account of the number of bushels threshed. It is shaped something like a railroad freight car, but smaller, and there is not a particle of machinery visible except one wheel, to which is attached the chain connected with the steam engine. Chains are used instead of belts and straps. It can be run with fewer hands than the old machine, while doing twice the work.

Members of the Decatur shooting club defeated the Mt. Zion club in a glass ball shooting contest at Mt. Zion yesterday. The clubs were royally entertained at the Hockaday house.

THE SILENT REAPER.

Death of Mrs. Ex-Mayor Priest To-day—Bessie Toland Dead.

MRS. A. JANE PRIEST.

The announcement of the death of Mrs. A. Jane Priest, wife of Ex-Mayor Priest, which occurred this forenoon at 9:55 o'clock at the family residence at No. 23 North Main street, will occasion no surprise to our readers. She has been troubled with cancer of the right breast for about two and a half years, but did not begin treating it until about a year ago. The deceased endured great pain during the past few months, but bore up heroically through her severe illness, and died peacefully at the time stated. Last Saturday she was able to leave her room and take tea with her husband.

The deceased, whose maiden name was A. Jane Priest, was born in Littleton, Middlesex county, Massachusetts, on May 6, 1825, and was therefore in the 58th year of her age, which was the age at which her mother died. On March 27, 1856, she married Ex-Mayor Franklin Priest, and took up her residence in Decatur, and here she has lived continually ever since. She was the mother of two deceased children—Hattie, who died at the age of seven months, and Master Atte L. Priest, who died in the 15th year of his age after a short illness. She leaves a husband and three step-children—Mrs. Mary O'Neill, of Chicago, who is now in the city, J. F. Priest and George R. Priest. A sister of the deceased, Mrs. Sarah L. Adams of Littleton, Mass., and Miss Abbie R. Billings, of the same place, arrived here last night. An only brother of the deceased, Mr. Joseph A. Priest, resides at Littleton.

While a young woman Mrs. Priest united with the First Congregational (Unitarian) church at Littleton, of which society she was a consistent member during her lifetime. The deceased was a most excellent woman, who was known to most of the old residents of Decatur, and also to many of those who are younger in years. She was a lady of innumerable fine qualities of head and heart, gentle and kind to a fault in all words and deeds. She was an active worker in the W. C. T. U., and was ever ready to give any good work her hearty endorsement and personal assistance. While her husband was proprietor of Priest's Hotel (now the New Denning) Mrs. Priest assumed the management of the affairs of the house and proved herself a worthy helpmeet. Her death will be sincerely mourned by hundreds of our people, who extend to the bereaved husband and relatives a full measure of sympathy.

The funeral will take place on Saturday or Sunday afternoon.

DEATH OF BESSIE TOLAND.

The sad news of the death of Bessie Toland, daughter of Mrs. L. A. Toland, of Latham, Ill., was received by telegraph in Decatur this forenoon. Miss Toland, who was in the 13th year of her age, died last night of pneumonia, at St. Mary's Seminary, near Terre Haute, Ind., which institution she entered last fall. The deceased was a bright and promising young girl, and during her brief illness of about two weeks, was attended by her mother who is now bereft of her only child.

The body will arrive in Decatur from St. Mary's this (Thursday) evening. The arrangement is that the funeral will take place from the residence of Mr. D. S. Shellabarger, at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

MAUNDY THURSDAY.

This is Maundy Thursday, which we are informed by an authority is commemorative of the last supper of Christ and the washing of the feet of the apostles. In the Catholic churches high mass is said in white, with all solemnity, but the kind of peace is not given, in detestation of Judas' treachery. The bells are all rung at the "Gloria in excelsis," and remain silent until Saturday's mass. Two hosts are consecrated and the one which is not consumed by the priest is carried in solemn procession to a side altar, where a repository, vulgarly called "sepulcher," has been prepared with lights, flowers, and all possible ornamentation, and there the sacrament is exposed all day for the veneration of the people. This host is consumed the following day at the mass of the "presanctified." After the procession the priests and assistants recite vespers, and divert the altars of the church of their ornaments and coverings, leaving a plain and austere appearance of Christ being stripped of his garments.

PERSONAL MENTION.

M. P. Murphy states that he will commence his maiden public address on temperance at the tabernacle Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, and that as he does not wish to interfere with the revival he agrees to get through in time to let the boys go to the meeting on Sunday morning. Mr. Murphy needs no introduction to our people, but it is arranged that he will be presented by Michael Trontman, who will act as chairman of the meeting. Mr. Murphy specially desires the attendance of all ministers of the gospel, the liquor dealers and ex-almshouse.

The Freed School.

On Tuesday evening, March 20, a large audience assembled at the Flood school house, near Emory station, to witness the closing exercises of the winter term of school, which has been so successfully taught by Miss Mary Lyons. The programme consisted of recitations, dialogues, singing, &c., and was good. The scholars seemed to take much interest, and seemed to have studied hard, and all acquitted themselves finely. A personal in one of the dialogues created much merriment; but "All's well that ends well." An exercise of "Welcome" was gotten up in good style. One marked feature of the exercises was that they all had a moral tendency. Among the teachers present was Miss Hart, who teaches at Belle Prairie; also Mr. Carl Hoover, of Fair Play. Among the strangers were Miss Nellie McGee and brother, from near Decatur. Perfect quiet reigned throughout the evening. We believe the board of directors have engaged Miss L. to teach the spring term. A Vindicator.
